THE WEATHER REPORT

Forecasts and Records of the Last Twenty-four Hours.

Official Record and Forecast,—Washington, May 13.—Pressure is relatively low along the Atlantic coast and on the Pacific slope, and Appalachian and Rocky Mountains. This press-ure distribution has resulted in unsettled weather and rains in the middle Atlantic and New England states, the Ohio Valley, the south portion of the region of the Great Lakes and Texas, and generally fair weather in all other districts. A further fail in temperature has taken place in the middle Atlantic states, the Ohio Valley, Tennessee and the Guif states, and a general, though gradual, change to higher temperatures is a proper temperature. to higher temperatures is in progress in the plains states, the upper Mississippi Valley and the Rocky Mountain region. The weather will rottled Thursday and fair Friday in the Atlantic states. In other parts of the country the weather will remain generally fair Thursday and Friday. Temperatures will be lower Thursday in the south Atlantic states, except the Florida Peninsula, while it will rise slowly Thursday and Friday in the plains states, th Mississippi and Ohio valleys and the region of the Great Lakes, and Friday in the middle Atalntic states and New England,

Local Official Record,-The following of cial record from the Weather Bureau shows the changes in the temperature for the last twenty-four hours, in comparison with the cor-responding date of last year:

FIGHT BACHELOR'S LEGACY TO WOMEN

Brothers of Frederick Nast Say Miss Reed and Sister Used Undue Influence.

A preliminary hearing in the proceedings to probate the will of Frederick A. Nast, for forty-eight years connected with Harper & Bros., will be held next Tuesday in the Surrogate's Court, Brook-

Mr. Nast dled a few weeks ago, leaving an estate of about $100,000. The testator's brothers, Charles A. Nast, of Denver, and Dr. John E. Nast, of San Francisco, have filed objections to the probate on the ground that the will was executed under the undue influence of Miss Jes-sica Reed, a secretary at Columbia University, and her sister, Mrs. Margaret Lewis, wife of Professor Lewis, of Johns Hopkins.

Under the will Miss Reed is to receive $3,000 in cash and a life interest in $20,000, while Mrs. Lewis will get $1,000 in cash, $5,000 more on the death of Miss Reed and another $6,500 when Dr. Nast dies, The sisters were no relation to the testator, but he calls them "adopted sisters"
